me: hey, I'm trying to get the word out to those arrested that the National Lawyers Guild and a few other attorneys based in California are providing free legal representation for those arrested today, as I'm only in touch with a few of those concerned, so let me know if you want any info on that Adrian: I'd definitely be interested in talking to some of hte lawyers me: okay, I'll let you know as soon as I find out; I imagine No and Trivette will get back in touch with one of them soon.
Adrian: great, thanks me: also me: Aaron Barr is talking nonsense to me on Twitter Adrian: about his email stuff?
me: yep
me: oh, now David House is getting involved
